Dear Bookseller,

The Langenscheidt dictionaries and self-study titles have been known in the US for many years. We are constantly expanding the program and among the latest new publications, the attractively illustrated „At your fingertips“ in German, French and Japanese are particularly noteworthy. They contain the most important words, phrases, and dialogs for the most common everyday situations. This way, language enthusiasts who want to speak instead of tediously cramming grammar can quickly get started.

We are happy that the program is being distributed in the US through our partners Continental Sales Inc. All titles in the catalogue can be ordered through Continental Sales, contact details to be found on the back cover. The team of Continental Sales will be happy to talk to you
